From the Administrator's Desk

THE PEACE THE LORD HAS MADE

I often remember my childhood in a neighborhood of Port-au-Prince. We had no TV, no cell phone, video games or other tech gadgets. Life was simple. We were very modest. We the children were playing together at jump rope, circle games, hide and seek, etc. We were joking together, dancing, laughing together, and crying together as well. We were joyous and noisy. It seems to me that people today despite the well-being and comfort they enjoy are less happy. I feel sorry when I see children today being too quiet, introverted, only focusing on their smart phones, or playing solo games. They look less joyous than children from 40, 50 years ago. The truth is that material goods and well-being do not necessarily bring joy and happiness. Despite all our progress and advanced technology we are living under fear, stress and pressure. In this weekend's gospel, Jesus offers us his peace, not the peace that the world gives, as he says, but the peace that he has made. During my recent pilgrimage to the Holy Land I had the opportunity to frequently hear people saying: Shalom. For a Jew, shalom is much more than a simple peace. Shalom is the wish of infinite happiness and of all that we need in life to blossom. The peace Jesus offers goes even further. It is the supreme good we definitely keep with ourselves. Nothing can take it away from us. In health and sickness, in wealth and poverty, in good and bad times as well, we can still enjoy it. No sorrow or grief, no suffering can make it less. But that peace Jesus offers also has a price. We must truly want it. We must prefer it to 'the cheap peace' the world offers. The peace Jesus gives is a fruit of the Holy Spirit. We must die to ourselves to obtain it; we must obey Jesus' words, and want what Jesus wants. This peace is the very abiding of God within us. As Jesus says, "whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

Actes des Apôtres 15: 1, 2, 22-29

Psaume 67: 2, 3, 5, 6, 8

Revelation 21: 10-14, 22, 23

John 14: 23-29

Jésus lui répondit : « Si quelqu'un m'aime, il gardera ma parole ; mon Père l'aimera, nous viendrons vers lui et, chez lui, nous nous ferons une demeure.

Celui qui ne m'aime pas ne garde pas mes paroles. Or, la parole que vous entendez n'est pas de moi : elle est du Père, qui m'a envoyé. Jésus nous fait descendre au plus profond de nous-mêmes, là où les questions bouillonnent, là où les soucis et les craintes affluent. Jésus dit : « C'est ma paix que je vous laisse, c'est ma paix que je vous donne, ce n'est pas à la manière du monde que je vous la donne ! » Il vient nous redire que dans la prière, Dieu est toujours le commencement et qu'il a toujours l'initiative, c'est lui qui parle et lui qui vient. Aux disciples qui ne sont pas sans difficultés, c'est dans le Christ, désormais, que toutes les difficultés de notre vie seront résolues. "Si quelqu'un m'aime" dit-il, c'est à la fois un appel et une question. « Il restera fidèle à ma parole. Mon Père l'aimera, nous viendrons chez lui, nous irons demeurer auprès de lui." Le Père, source de tout amour est le brasier ardent qui veut nous enflammer. Le même amour que Jésus communique à Marie et à Jean à la Croix se propage dans toute l'Eglise. C'est le feu que Jésus est venu apporter sur la terre. Dieu est comme un Ami qui demeure avec son aimé, il a pris notre humanité de la Vierge Marie pour que nous soyons revêtus de sa divinité.

May 26 ~ Sixth Sunday of Easter

In our first reading, we hear more about the growing pains of the early Church. The Apostles were doing something that had never been before, building a community of believers in Jesus Christ, Son of God. There were bound to be misunderstandings and differences of opinion. Even today, as the Church of Boston focuses on strengthening evangelization efforts and spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ people are hesitant to put their faith into action. Jesus' words in today's Gospel sustained the early Church, and they must sustain us also: "Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." Rely on the Holy Spirit – the Advocate – who is still with us.

LA FETE DE L'ASCENSION:

La fête de l'Ascension ne doit pas être confondue avec la fête de l'Assomption. La première fête concerne Notre Seigneur Jésus-Christ. C'est celle que nous venons de célébrer jeudi dernier. L'Ascension marque l'élévation au ciel du Christ quarante jours après sa résurrection; elle marque donc la fin de la présence sur terre de Jésus-Christ dans la chair. L'ASSOMPTION concerne la Très Sainte Vierge Marie. C'est l'événement au cours duquel la Vierge Marie, Mère de Jésus, au terme de sa vie terrestre, est entrée directement dans la gloire du ciel, âme et corps, sans connaître la corruption physique qui suit la mort. Le mot Assomption provient du latin assumere, qui signifie « prendre », « enlever »; le mot Ascension provient du latin ascendere qui signifie "monter", "élever". Celui qui était descendu du ciel pour connaître notre situation humaine est remonté vers le Père dans la gloire céleste. "Nul n'est monté au ciel sinon Celui qui est descendu, le Fils de l'Homme" (Jean 3, 13). Deux évangiles mentionnent explicitement l'Ascension de Jésus. Celui de Marc le place juste après l'épisode de la Résurrection: "Le Seigneur, après leur avoir parlé, fut enlevé au ciel, et il s'assit à la droite de Dieu" (Marc 16, 9). Chez Saint Luc l'Ascension constitue la fin de son évangile et le commencement du livre des Actes des apôtres écrit par le même Saint Luc. Avec l'Ascension une partie de notre humanité est déjà parvenue vers les cieux nouveaux où nous avançons en titubant. Jésus est allé nous préparer une place dans la maison du Père. Il reste néanmoins toujours présent au milieu de nous sous la mouvance de l'Esprit-Saint-Paraclet, l'Avocat, le Défenseur, l'Intercesseur.

The Religious Education Program of St-Angela wants to send a special thanks to our Pastor Garcia Breneville. We appreciate the love and dedication of Father Chery Parochial Vicar of St-Angela and St-Matthew, our Deacon Joseph E. Dorlus. We want to express our gratitude to our teachers Judith Delva, Nicole Elva, Patricia Kleiber, Claudia Owumi, Mrs. Thompson and the entire Religious Education Staff.

St-Angela Parish would like to congratulate all the Communicants and their parents on this special day.

1— Anyone who's worshipping with us for the first time, please stand up, we want to say a special welcome. We have an English Mass at St. Matthew at 9:30am, and St. Angela at 11:00am.

2— Keep in mind that we have trash disposal at the entrance of the church. Do not leave anything in the church when service is over. Be careful not to lug chewing gum on the carpet, or food, or water. Do not bring food and drinks to the church. Do not let the children go out alone; Do not let them go to the toilet, or go down to the basement alone. Thank you so much for your collaboration.

3— Remember that Saint Angela's Church holds an additional English Mass every Saturday at 4pm. Invite friends and family.

4— The office is close on Wednesdays. It will be opened Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, until further notice.

5—IMPORTANT DATES FOR OUR TWO PARISHES
