From the Administrator's Desk

HOW DO WE PRAY?

WELCOME TO OUR WEEKLY PARISH BULLETIN! Two parish missions are scheduled on our 'Yearly agenda' for this coming December. The first one, which is our Advent mission, will take place at Saint Angela's from December 9 to December 11; the second, our year-end Triduum, will take place at Saint Matthew's from December 29 to December 31. Our two-parish collaborative strives to be a prayerful community firmly grounded in the gospel preached by Jesus Christ, as our mission statement points out. This weekend's gospel indeed is about our relationship with God that has a lot to do with our relationship with our neighbor. Jesus puts in contrast two personalities with two different approaches in their prayers. The Pharisee prides himself on his religious practices; his prayer consists of self-congratulations for what he did and of disdain for the Publican. This latter nevertheless, humbles himself before God and begs for mercy. He went home justified, Jesus says. God hears the prayers of the humble of heart who recognize their sinfulness and hope for God's mercy. God does not hear those who despise others and lack charity for their neighbor. Actually, the Pharisee Jesus talks about is not just a figure of the past; he is still active in each of us when we are swift to praise ourselves while we despise others, when we are tender for our own but disdainful of our neighbor, when we look for mistakes in others while we don't even see ours. Jesus invites us to be more humble to enjoy God's blessings in our lives. As we prepare ourselves to live these two upcoming missions as times of renewal and resourcing, may our prayers also truly be humble, sincere, and repentant. When those who say they love God despise their neighbor, they deeply hurt God himself.

Sœurs et Frères dans le Christ,
 Dans l'Évangile de ce dimanche Jésus s'adresse à des pharisiens, qui croient qu'ils sont des « justes » parce qu'ils pratiquent très scrupuleusement la Loi. Jésus ne critique pas leur pratique de la Loi mais leur prétention de se croire les meilleurs. Il critique le fait qu'ils s'admirent et se font bien voir sur les places publiques et dans les synagogues. Ils sont trop sûrs d'eux. Jésus critique cette prétention dangereuse de se croire supérieur aux autres. La parabole vient tout renverser. Aux yeux de Dieu, ce n'est pas celui qui fait tout très bien qui est le meilleur, mais celui qui s'incline humblement devant Dieu, qui se sait petit et pécheur et qui demande à Dieu de l'accueillir malgré tout. Ce que Dieu regarde, c'est l'intention avec laquelle tout est fait, ce qu'il y a dans le cœur de l'homme. Souvenons-nous de l'admiration de Jésus pour la pauvre veuve !

Ce n'est pas quand l'homme fait des choses extraordinaires que Dieu l'aime, mais quand il se tourne humblement vers lui, comme un mendiant qui tend la main avec espérance. Ce qui compte aux yeux de Dieu, c'est l'amour avec lequel on fait jusqu'aux choses les plus insignifiantes. Comme le répète saint Paul, sans la charité, tout ce que je peux faire n'est rien... (1Co 13). Le « chapelet » des moines orientaux consiste à répéter sans cesse : « Jésus, Fils de Dieu, Sauveur, prends pitié de moi, pécheur ! » C'est ce que nos frères orthodoxes appellent « la prière de Jésus ». Il s'agit tout simplement de la prière du publicain de la parabole. Que ce soit aussi notre prière en nous souvenant que le Seigneur « élève les humbles » comme le chante Marie, l'humble servante, dans son Magnificat. Demandons-lui de nous apprendre cette humilité du cœur que Dieu aime. Alors nous pourrions comprendre la conclusion que donne Jésus à la fin de la parabole : « Qui s'élève sera abaissé ; qui s'abaisse sera élevé. »

SOLENNITE DE LA TOUSSAINT: La Toussaint est une fête catholique célébrée le 1er novembre au cours de laquelle l'Église honore tous les saints, connus et inconnus. Cette célébration concerne toutes les personnes canonisées ou non qui ont été sanctifiées par l'exercice de la charité, l'accueil de la miséricorde et le don de la grâce divine. Cette fête rappelle à tous les fidèles que la sainteté est la vocation universelle de tous les baptisés. Cette fête fut établie au début du VIIème siècle par le pape Boniface IV qui dédia le Panthéon de Rome à la Vierge Marie et à tous les saints martyrs. Rome étant devenue chrétienne, le pape Boniface IV débarrassa l'ancien temple romain de toutes ses idoles, et le 3 mai de l'année 605, le consacra à la Vierge Marie et à tous les martyrs, le rebaptisant du nom de Sainte-Marie aux Martyrs. La Toussaint fut alors fixée au 13 mai jusqu'en l'année 835, date à laquelle le pape Grégoire IV instaura sa célébration le 1er novembre. Car étant donné que les fidèles venaient en foule pour rendre hommage aux saints martyrs, le pape jugea meilleur que la fête fut célébrée à un moment de l'année où les vendanges et les moissons étaient plus abondantes afin de nourrir plus facilement les pèlerins. En même temps, le pape Boniface IV décréta qu'on célébrerait, ce jour là, dans l'Église tout entière, non seulement l'anniversaire de cette consécration, mais la mémoire de tous les saints. Ainsi donc, ce temple qui avait été construit pour toutes les idoles, est devenu une Basilique consacrée à tous les saints. La Toussaint précède d'un jour la Commémoration des fidèles défunts dont la solennité a été officiellement fixée au 2 novembre, deux siècles après la création de la solennité de la Toussaint.

October 27 ~ Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

The Pharisee in today's gospel did not really go to pray; he went to inform God how good he was. The tax collector on the other hand prayed with humility, "O God, be merciful to me a sinner." This parable tells us important things about prayer. When praying, don't hold yourself above others, as the Pharisee did, instead pray with humility, see yourself like others – a sinner among sinners all in need of God's mercy! Take time to pray this week, calling to mind the words of the psalmist: "The Lord hears the cry of the poor."

27 Oktòb ~Trantiyèm Dimanch Lan Tan Òdinè

Farizyen an lan Bòn Nouvèl jodi an pa t konn reyèlman al priye; li te ale pou enfòm Bondye kijan li te bon. Pèseptè kontribisyon an yon lòt kote te lapriye avèk imilite, "O Bondye, gen pitye pou mwen yon pechè." Parabòl sa a di nou kèk bagay enpòtan sou lapriyè. Lè w ap lapriyè, pa mete tèt ou pi wo ke lòt yo, jan Farizyen an te fè, pito w lapriyè ak imilite, mete w menm jan ak lòt moun yo- yon pechè pami lòt pechè ki ansanm bezwen lagras Bondye an! Pran tan pou w priye semèn sa a, kenbe lan tèt ou pawòl salmis lan : Seyè a tande rèl pòv yo.
